NEWS RELEASE

Off-duty SAPD Officer Arrested for Assault/Burglary

On December 15, 2005, San Antonio Police Officers responded to 259 Langford for a disturbance. When officers arrived, they contacted Claudia Maggiano, who told officers while she was sleeping, several individuals entered her home and one of them, an off-duty SAPD officer Shawn McGibbons, began to argue with her about her boyfriend. Maggiano and McGibbons are related and apparently McGibbons did not agree with Maggiano's boyfriend choice. McGibbons was accompanied by three other individuals, who all entered Maggiano's home without her consent. After a brief struggle, police were called to the home. After conducting a preliminary investigation, SAPD supervisors ordered the arrest of Officer McGibbons and his three friends. All four suspects were taken to the San Antonio Magistrates Office, where they will be charged with the below charges.

Officer McGibbons will be placed on administrative duty pending the outcome of the criminal/administrative case.

Suspect #1 McGibbons, Shawn W/M 03-08-69

- Burglary w/intent of assault
 - 2nd degree felony (2-20 years in prison, $10,000 fine)
